

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

SB 3271

February 9, 2010

SUMMARY OF BILL: Eliminates the Office of Legislative Services. Deletes all references to “management information systems” and replaces with “legislative information services.” Deletes all references to “Office of Management Information Systems” and replaces them with “Office of Legislative Information Services.”

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Decrease State Expenditures - $124,400

Assumptions:

- According to the Office of Legislative Administration, elimination of the Office of Legislative Services will eliminate four temporary positions that are filled during months that the General Assembly is in session, operational budget for the office, and printing costs for the Legislative Record and the General Assembly wrap-ups that are printed during session.
- Recurring decrease in state expenditures for the temporary positions is estimated to be $124,400 which includes $49,100 for temporary employee salaries, $72,300 for printing costs and $3,000 for the operation of this division.
- Any cost for the changes in reference by the Tennessee Code Commission is estimated to be not significant.
